“If any of you is lacking in wisdom, ask God, who gives to all generously and ungrudgingly, and it will be given you.”

—James 1:5

None of us pray as we should — we can’t find the time, we’re too distracted — and we may wonder about the value of it all, when there are so many demands on our time and attention.

At this ecumenical study day, Ed Hone will offer insights and practical guidance on prayer, a vital part of Christian life — praying the Scriptures, enriching our Sunday celebrations together, and alone with the Lord. We can say with Descartes I think, therefore I am — But add as Christians, I believe, therefore I pray.

“Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.”

—Philippians 4:6-7
